Pastor John Miller

A graduate of both Furman University and Greenville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, he has served as an elder at Grace Baptist Church of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and as a deacon at Grace Baptist Church of Taylors, South Carolina. In 2010 he moved to Clarksville, Tennessee with his family to begin planting Covenant Baptist Church where he serves as pastor. John has been married to his wife Elizabeth for over ten years and they have three children. He currently is also serving on the Church Planting Committee of ARBCA and has been involved in short-term missions in Africa and Asia.

Pastor Fred Malone

He holds a B.S. from Auburn University, an M.Div. from Reformed Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. in New Testament from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is the founding pastor and ministered for eleven years at Heritage Baptist Church in Mansfield, Texas. In 1993, he became the pastor First Baptist Church, Clinton, Louisiana. He has served on the board of Founders Ministries, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, ARBCA and the Institute of Reformed Baptist Studies at Westminster Seminary in California. He has authored A String of Pearls Unstrung and The Baptism of Disciples Alone. He is also a contributing writer to Covenant Theology: A Baptist Distinctive.

Pastor Earl Blackburn

Following his theological education, he labored as a church planting missionary for seven years in Utah, then pastored Trinity Reformed Baptist Church in La Mirada, California for twenty-two years, and now has been at Heritage Baptist Church, Shreveport, Louisiana since 2006. In the past, he served for eight years as Chairman of the Administrative Council of ARBCA and has recently become the current chairman. He edited and was a contributing writer to the book, Covenant Theology: A Baptist Distinctive and is the author of both Jesus Loves the Church and So Should You and John Chrysostom. His newest work is 50 World-Changing Events in Christian History.
